

■ Ashburn Public Library

Ashburn, Virginia

PSA designed this small community library to be built in one of the fastest-growing counties in Northern Virginia.

The Ashburn Library will function as a multi-purpose community center with the goal of becoming an anchor for the surrounding neighborhood.

In addition to housing traditional library functions, the building offers the opportunity to meet a broad range of community needs by the inclusion of meeting rooms, conference rooms, and multi-purpose program space which will be able to accommodate a broad range of meeting needs. Also, a wide variety of children's functions will be accommodated including storytelling, puppet shows, and crafts, 23,000 SF, $3.07 million, 2002 (est.)
